

Articles and Publications Produced for the Forum by Dr. Colin Morgan

Colin's passion for the local history of Blaenau Gwent and for the Welsh language is clearly evident in his articles. His translations of nineteenth and early twentieth century Eisteddfod Welsh history essays make for fascinating and informative reading.

Journal Contributions - To find these, look on the Journals page.

Issue 5	Welsh Patagonia and Gwent
Issue 8	The Welsh National Anthem and the Bedwellty Connection
Issue 9	Pass Labour – An Early Route into Mining
Issue 11	The Birth of Rhymney
Issue 12	Cefn Golau Cholera Cemetery The Rhymney Truck Act Case of 1886*
Issue 13	Rhymney Tennis Club in the 1920s
Issue 14	The 1920's and 1930's valley Jazz bands – The 'Cant Jazz Band' Rhymney
Issue 15	'Puddler Jim' – James J Davies, a Tredegar Boy who became USA Secretary of Labour Rhymney Heritage Walk and Drive
Issue 18	Celebration of the - Welsh in Patagonia
Issue 23	Brazil Novo Cambria and Blaenau Gwent Blaenau Gwent Society of "Dynolwyr"
Issue 24	F. J. Ball 1914-1986 - A Dedicated Ebbw Vale Local Historian The Blaenau Gwent Society of "Dynolwyr" Their Aims or Manifesto
*Written in conjunction with Eifion Lloyd Davies

Translations - To find these, look on the Online Shop page.

1. The History of Gwent from the Time of Llewelyn ap Gruffudd until the Present Day - Thomas E. Watkins (Eiddil Ifor)
2. The History of Blaenau Gwent – Daniel Lewis (Ifor Gwent)
3. The History of the South Wales Iron Industry 1837 - Thomas E. Watkins (Eiddil Ifor)
4. The Tredegar Diaries of John Davies – (Brychan)

Heritage Walks - To find these, look on the Trails page.

1. Rhymney Heritage Walks - Colin Morgan and David Ralph Williams